

AHEAD OF THE FIELD

Clifton Ingram has acted for a number of sportsmen and sports related clients for many years and has built an impressive client base and skill set which is attracting further work. We are therefore delighted to announce the launch of Clifton Ingram Sport, a team of lawyers dedicated to servicing the firm's clients in this dynamic sector.

Our clients now include a leading sports equipment manufacturer and retailer and a number of well known international footballers and media personalities who, by virtue of their very public profile, demand a particular approach and set of case management skills.

Our objective is to provide reliable, speedy and cost effective legal services from a single source for our wide range of sports clients including:

- leading sports equipment retailers
- sports management organisations
- clubs, gyms and health spas
- societies and charities
- sportsmen and women
- sports and media businesses

We aim to build lasting relationships with our clients by providing specialist legal services in support of all of our clients needs and we can advise on the following:

- business formation, shareholders agreements and investment and exit strategies
- merger, disposal and acquisition of sporting companies, undertakings and assets
- terms and conditions of supply, distribution and joint venture
- subcontracting, maintenance and licensing arrangements
- employment contracts, players' name, brand and image rights, endorsements and sponsorship
- advice on club constitution, membership and rules, charitable status and incorporation
- yacht partnership agreements
- sports event management contracts
- motor racing engine supply and support contracts

- Motocross track terms of use
- negotiation, mediation and settlements of disputes and litigation
