

CLIFTON INGRAM SOLICITOR RECOGNISED AS A SPECIALIST IN DOMESTIC ABUSE AND COHABITATION

Thames Valley law firm, Clifton Ingram LLP, is pleased to announce that the specialist skills of Marilyn Young have been recognised by the Resolution, the UK's leading family law group.

Marilyn, who is a Partner and Head of the Family Law Department, has become a Resolution Accredited Specialist in the areas of domestic abuse and cohabitation, placing her amongst the most highly qualified lawyers in the area.

The Resolution Accreditation Scheme is designed to help people who are facing family breakdown to make an informed choice when deciding which family solicitor to appoint. To become a Resolution Accredited Specialist, solicitors have to agree to uphold the Resolution Code of Practice and to have passed a written test demonstrating a breadth of knowledge of family law issues and specialist knowledge in at least two areas of family law.

Marilyn Young commented, "As a Resolution member, I am committed to minimising the emotional and financial costs of a breakdown of family relationships. Now, by choosing a Resolution specialist, people can be assured that they are being advised by someone who has both specialist knowledge and broad experience in family law, with the qualifications to demonstrate it."

Marilyn's status as a leading family law specialist has also been recognised as a leader in her field in Chambers Legal Directory. Although she covers all aspects of family law, including divorce, separation, children and unmarried couples, Marilyn has developed considerable expertise in dealing with complex financial cases including those involving both private and public companies and has represented a number of high value divorce clients, some of whom are well known in business and sporting circles.
